2008 Men's European Championship

The 2008 Men's European Handball Championship is now well underway in venues across Norway. The preliminary round of the 8th Men's European Handball Championship came to an end on 20th January with 12 teams qualifying for the main round which will be played on 22.01.08, 23.01.08, and 24.01.08 respectively. The 12 teams, which have qualified for the main round, are:

Group 1 Stavanger	Group 2 Trondheim
Croatia	Hungary
Norway	France
Poland	Spain
Denmark	Sweden
Slovenia	Germany
Montenegro	Iceland

Please note that the respective preliminary round results from the matches against opponents, which also go through to the main round remain valid for the ranking of the main round. The following teams, which have left the Championship, are ranked as follows:

13 Russia	14 Czech Republic	15 Belarus	16 Slovakia
-----------	-------------------	------------	-------------

All the results, standings and match times for the main round can be found in the attached match schedule.
