Hosts win Youth Beach Handball EURO

The first ever European Youth Beach Handball Championship took place over the last weekend in Nagyatád, Hungary.

8 men's and 6 women's team took part in the tournament that concluded with double Hungarian victory.

The final of the men's competition went on shoot-out with Hungary celebrating the trophy against Serbia. The women's final was also won by the hosts after defeating Turkey 2:0.

The finals were both played in front of a full house – over 1,000 spectators – on the beach of Nagyatád. The supporters could enjoy high quality performances shown by Beach Handballers born in 1990 or later.
