2008 European Masters Games

Handball will be one of the sports at the 2008 Masters Games, which will take place in Malmo from 4 – 7 September 2008. A total of 48 teams from 16 nations have registered to take part in four categories: women 33+ 8 teams, women 43+ 4 teams, men 35+ 16 teams, men 45+ 20 teams. The medals will be awarded by EHF President Tor Lian at 13:00 on Sunday 9th September. More information on all the activities in Malmo can be found at www.emg2008.com.

2008 EHF Top Coaches' Seminar

The EHF Competence Academy Network (CAN) will hold the 2008 EHF Top Coaches' Seminar on the final weekend of EHF EURO 2008 in FRY Macedonia (11 – 14 December 2008). Claude Onesta, Olympic Gold medal winning coach of the men's French national team will be one of the lecturers leading the seminar on top level handball. More information on the course can be found at activities.eurohandball.com where the complete programme and all details on the course can be downloaded and printed out. Deadline for registration is 20 September 2008.

European Club season commences

The weekend of the 6/7 September 2008 will see the beginning of the 2008/2009 EHF European Club competition season. Alongside the qualification of the EHF Men's and Women's Champions League, the first round of the Men's Cup Winners' Cup and Women's EHF Cup will be played.
