

2016 EHF Licence Renewal Seminar

13 - 16 December 2016 in Gothenburg / SWE

Host City - Gothenburg, Sweden

Culture in Gothenburg 2016

This year's cultural focus is part of the celebration leading up to Gothenburg's 400th anniversary in 2021. The goal is to make Gothenburg an even better city and offer more culture to more people. Feel free to share your own experience of culture in Gothenburg by using the hashtag #merkulturtillfler in social media.

Exciting museums, shopping, lots of events and an amazing archipelago. Discover the best of Gothenburg!

A shopping spree or visit to the museum on the very same day as you plunge into the salty sea or paddle across a glittering lake. Nature is always around the corner and the distances are short. You can easily travel on public transport from cafés and city attractions to cliffs or green forests in no time.

The Gothenburg Archipelago – Over 20 islands with an endless amount of gems to discover.

The archipelago of Gothenburg stretches along the coast like a string of pearls. You don't have to travel far from the city to find charming villages, stunning nature and beaches. Seal safaris, sea-fishing and boat excursions are just some of the activities available here.

No cars are allowed in the southern part of the archipelago which makes this the perfect destination for long walks and bike rides. You travel on the same ticket the whole way from the city, including the ferry from Saltholmen. The northern part of the archipelago is accessed by a car ferry from Lilla Varholmen at Hisingen and you can bring your car to most islands.
